NEW LEARNING: How to identify and use proper nouns

1, Can you practice writing the name of your best friends? Think about the size of the capital letter – how big should it be?

2, Today you have a story video. It is our book Mr Gumpy's motorcar – listen to the story.

Can you find the proper nouns – why are they proper nouns?

Mr Gumpy was written by John Burningham.

What should you remember?

What do proper nouns always start with?

person	date
Mr Gumpy	Friday

3, Can you find the proper nouns? - don't just count capital letters – remember they are not always proper nouns.

I think the animals are called Billie, Amelia and Adonai.

I want to go to Scotland on the train.

My Mum works in a school and she is brilliant.

Miss Watt is a fantastic teacher.

4, Identify which ones are the proper nouns - I have not used capital letters!

arm

adam

apple

mr gumpy

cat

harry

INDEPENDENT TASK

Today you will be writing using proper nouns. Can you write about Mr Gumpy going on a trip, you could include your friends and go somewhere exciting?

Mr Welsh's example – do not copy!

Mr Gumpy went to Scotland on a train with his friends. His best friends were Bronislaw and Brielle. When they got to Scotland they went to the huge castle because Peppa Pig had gone to visit. After that they went to Pizza Hut and had a delicious pizza.

CHALLENGE
